

USA Pathway to Permanent Residency Sponsorship (Form I-140)

PERMANENT RESIDENCY OVERVIEW

Permanent Residency, also known as the “Green Card”, is an immigrant visa status. There are many different paths to obtaining Permanent Residency, but the University of South Alabama can petition for only specific employment-based categories.

CRITERIA FOR USA PERMANENT RESIDENCY SPONSORSHIP

In general, the University will sponsor Permanent Residence petitions (Form I-140) for staff or faculty under the following conditions:

1. The candidate holds a permanent or tenured/tenure track position at the University of South Alabama. "Permanent" is defined by immigration guidelines as employment that is intended to be of an indefinite or unlimited duration. In other words, the nature of the position is such that the employee will ordinarily have an expectation of continued employment.
2. The position demonstrates secured funding that is either regular in nature, or in the case of a grant-funded position, includes a reasonable expectation that funding will continue.
3. The candidate maintains a valid non-immigrant employment status while the application is being processed.

USA reserves the right to determine acceptable cases under employment-based categories where the long-term services of an employee are deemed to be in the best interests of the University and there are assurances of a long-term commitment on the part of both the employing department and the employee.

CATEGORIES SPONSORED BY USA

The categories of Permanent Residency which the University of South Alabama may sponsor as an employer are:

- EB-1A: Extraordinary Ability in the Sciences, Arts, or Business
- EB-1B: Outstanding Researcher/Professor
- EB-2: Advanced Degree Holders
- EB-3: Professional or Skilled Worker

University employees whose circumstances foreclose using an employer-sponsored category may self-petition for PR through other categories such as Alien of Extraordinary Ability or the National Interest Waiver. Employees in this situation are encouraged to consult with competent legal counsel about their individual situation before proceeding under either of those categories.

Employees choosing either first (EB-1) or second (EB-2) paths to PR may ask supervisors for letters of reference for their petition. The employee's department should confirm that the PR petition is not signed or filed on behalf of the University by the employee and/or a non-approved attorney in reliance on an existing or future position.

However, any advice provided to you by our office, as well as the information in this packet, does not constitute legal advice. Additionally, due to the fluid nature of governmental interpretation, USCIS may change its interpretation of the above mentioned immigration policies, procedures, regulations, and eligibility requirements for benefits at any time. This office will do its best to provide you with the most current guidance, but please be mindful that each case is fact-specific. The Office of Immigration recommends an experienced immigration attorney if your case requires legal assistance.

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH ALABAMA APPROVED OUTSIDE IMMIGRATION COUNSEL

The University of South Alabama uses select immigration legal counsel for all employment-based, USA-sponsored paths to Permanent Residency. Departments or employees MAY NOT hire outside legal counsel to file a USA employer-sponsored petition. An immigration attorney must be selected from the list below. Departments with questions about the retention of immigration counsel to represent the University in the filing of an employer-sponsored PR petition may contact the Office of Immigration.

USA Internal Procedures

To begin sponsorship of a faculty or staff member for Permanent Residency at the University of South Alabama (USA), sponsorship must be approved. Approval is required for all USA supported permanent residency applications as follows:

1. Faculty Sponsorship Approval: Chair > Dean > Provost/Division Head > Office of Immigration.
2. Staff Sponsorship: Chair/Director > Division Head > HR Director > Office of Immigration.

After the PR Sponsorship is approved, the Chair/Director and Immigration Manager selects university-approved immigration counsel to represent USA. Immigration counsel will consult with the department, faculty/staff member, and immigration office via conference call to determine the appropriate path to PR sponsorship. The Office of Immigration will then submit appropriate forms and documents to immigration counsel for preparation of petition(s).

Immigration counsel processes all paperwork in close conjunction with the Office of Immigration and the sponsoring department. At the point of filing of the I-140, the Immigration Manager will sign all applicable forms, as well as the Labor Certification. If required, additional documentation may require signatures of the Chair/Director and/or faculty staff member.

Once the I-140 has been approved, the employee may petition for Permanent Residency. It is advised the employee hire the same immigration attorney that handled the I-140, but it is not required. Employee can choose to self-petition or hire outside counsel. Employee is responsible for Permanent Residency petition expenses. Employee must provide the Office of Immigration with a copy of the approved Permanent Resident card.
